2. FUNCTIONS AND DUTIES AND THE ORGANISATIONS UNDER THE CONTROL OF LAW DEPARTMENT.

(Under section 4(1)(b)(i) of the Right to Information Act, 2005)

2.1. OBJECTIVE/PURPOSE OF THE DEPARTMENT:-

Wherever Legislation is necessary to implement the policy decision of the Government, the Law Department, puts it into legal shape in the form of a draft Bill in co-ordination with the administrative departments concerned.

On passage of the Bill by the Legislative Assembly, Law Department pursues further action till it is published as an Act after assent by the Governor or the President, as the case may be. Where there is urgent need to make law when the Legislative Assembly is not in session and is prorogued, Ordinance is promulgated under Article 213 of the Constitution of India.

Further, one of the main roles of Law Department is advisory in nature. Law Department offers legal advice on the issues referred to it by all the departments of Secretariat including Legislative Assembly Secretariat.

Apart from this, the statutory rules, notifications and orders and the deeds wherein the State Government are a party are scrutinized with reference to the relevant legal provisions and settled by the Law department.

In all litigations, wherein the State Government are a party, the draft affidavits, draft counter affidavits, reply affidavits, etc. are scrutinized and settled by the Law Department.

Appointment of Notaries:-

For the purpose of attesting the negotiable instruments and for all recognized Notarial purposes, Notaries are appointed under the Notaries Act, 1952 (C.A. LIII of 1952). Wherever there is need for appointment of Notaries, the District Judges concerned who is the competent authority under the said Act, make recommendations to the Government, in Law Department for appointment of Advocates having sufficient standing in the Bar as Notaries. On considering such recommendations, the Law Department appoints the Advocate as a Notary and issues Certificate of Practice with the sign and seal of the Secretary to Government, Law Department. However, at present the State Government are not appointing any new Notaries in view of the amendment of Government of India to the Notaries Rules, 1956, fixing a ceiling of appointment of Notaries. Further, the Certificate of Practice of the existing Notaries are being renewed from time to time, on receipt of their renewal application well in time. There are 1695 Notaries practicing in this State as on 31.12.2006.

Tamil Cell:-

A Tamil Cell consisting of a Director and an Assistant Director is functioning in the Law department.
